COLONIAL DAMES DONATE TABLET

W.J.BRYAN IS PRESENT.

Interesting Addresses, Inspiring Music and Considerable Enthusiasm Manifested by All Present.

The presentation of a tablet chronicling notes from the history of Alexandria in colonial and subsequent days and the unveiling of the same late yesterday afternoon attracted many people to the intersection of Cameron and Royal streets. An appropriately decorated stand had been erected and the area roped off in a manner which enabled those on the inside to have an abundance of room, while those without had all the opportunity desired to witness all that was done and to hear all that was said.

The weather during most of the day had been rainy and threatening and had conditions been unpropitious for outdoor exercises, the Corporation Court room was to have been used. But as the hour for the exercises drew near the sun shone brightly accompanied by a crisp breeze, which rendered conditions all that could have been desired.

The donors of the tablet, the Colonial Dames of Virginia, occupied seats on the stand, and, unexpectedly, William Jennings Bryan, secretary of State, who has ever been proud of the fact that Virginia blood courses in his veins, was seen to take a seat on the stand. While he made no speech he remained to the close of the ceremonies and was greeted by as many Alexandrians as could get near him. Others on the stand were Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. Joseph Rucker Lamar, Mrs. Elihu Chauncey, Mrs. Foroussat, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Lyster, Mrs. Nathaniel T. Bacon, of the Society of Colonial Dames. Capt. Duncan Elliott, U. S. A., representing the War Department, and Commander McDougall U. S. N., and his aide, Ensign E. D. Langworthy, representing the Navy Department.

Many chairs had been placed on the Cameron street side of the City Hall and they were occupied by Alexandrians and people from Washington and others living in the vicinity of this city.

Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of St Paul's Church, opened the exercises with the Lord's Prayer, after which Miss Rose M. McDonald, chairman of the local committee, introduced Mrs. Wm. Ruffin Cox, of Richmond, president of the National Society of Colonial Dames and of the Virginia branch of the society. At the request of Mrs. Cox, her speech presenting the tablet to the city, was read by George Washington Lewis in an impressive manner.

Mayor Thomas A. Fisher then arose and accepted the tablet on behalf o the city of Alexandria in the following words:

Mrs. Cox, ladies of the society of the Colonial Dames, my friends and my fellowtownsmen:

The part assigned me in the exercises of this evening in the presentation of the tablet so generously donated to our city, is a very simple one and I sincerely wish that the choice with entire propriety had been accorded to some one else, one better qualified to express in words thoughts pertinent to the occasio and more inclined to appear in public than myself. Of course, it is no secret that I am here only in a representative and official capacity. However, we are not makers of our own fate, and at times must sacrifice our inclinations or indolence to what may be classed as our duties. It is in this spirit that I am the medium to receive from you this tablet. Upon the occasion af Alexandria's centennial, March, 1880, the orator, the late Wm. F. Carne, Sr. began his oration, for it was that, with the words: "I esteem it a high honor to speak of my native town between two of its centuries, and be content that I shall sit like a town sparrow on your window sill and twitter of home." Alexandria is nothing if not historical and patriotic. To borrow Mr. Carne's words, not as to centuries, I also "esteem it a high honor to speak," as your choice has decreed between the Masonic lodge that Washington has made historical, and the old church made sacred to Alexandrians because Washington and Lee were enrolled among its members, two names prominent in all great things connected with colonial and later Virginia history. You will pardon a short quotation from Mr. Carne's address, when in these words he pays tribute to the old church: "And there on Christ Church green where Washington pronounced for resistance to British arms, Robert E. Lee accepted command of the armies of the commonwealth. It is hallowed ground, not because Washington in victory founded a nation, not because Lee in defeat left only a grave, but because two honest men lifted by Providence as guides to their people, each here saw duty demanded personal sacrifice, and threw themselves into the fire that burned on the altar of their country. Not closer does the ivy cling to the walls of that venerated pile than hangs around the memories of Washington and Lee. It is the heart of the town. Its lesson is the lesson of the century."

It is only a few years ago that the Daughters of the American Revolution placed on the outer walls of the old church the pioneer tablet of the city, relative, as it is, to the funeral of the first citizens of the nation—the state—and our town. This line of thought and recital may seem to some unnecessary, and to others only a trifling digression, but still foreign to what should be, and what could be said upon this occasion, however, I consider them closely related, one with the other, by reason that both represent, in addition to their historical character, the patriotism of two societies, and both are silent witnesses of the energy, determination and liberality of the good women of our community. Now, ladies of the Society of Colonial Dames, it only remains for me to accept in the name of the city of Alexandria that which you have so generously given. What may be read will be noted by the many who visit our city, and of this we should have no doubts. That it will be studied by those of our time and those who will follow us, we hope. You have erected it and I, in the name of the city, accept it. Its care and preservation is commended to all of our people.

After the Mayor had taken his seat Andrew Stewart and Frederick D. Owens, of Washington, bearing the flags of the Society of Colonial wars, marched from the speaker's stand toward the wall of the City Hall opposite, the flag of Virginia veiling the tablet, and the veil was drawn aside by little Miss Dorothy Ashby Morton and Master Armstead Boothe.

A short while before the hour set for the unveiling exercises, Colonel Robert E. Lee, of Fairfax county, who was to have delivered the principal oration, notified the committee that he could not be present because of the death of a relative, and former State Senator Lewis H. Machen consented to take his place. Mr. Machen's address was historlac in its nature and punctuated with much pleasantry. The speaker made apt references to chapters in Alexandria and national annals, and he was listened to with close attention.

At the conclusion of Mr. Machen's remarks Rev. Mr. Phillips pronounced the benediction, after which Mr. Bryan and other distinguished persons who were on the stand received an ovation from the large gathering.

Later Mr. Bryan was entertained at a tea given by the Dames, and between six and seven o'clock he and the Washingtonians accompanying him boarded the palace car Mount Vernon and proceeded to the Capital city.

The tablet bears the following inscription:

Alexandria, Virginia. County seat of Fairfax, 1721-1800; organized July 13, 1749; incorporated by Act of the Assembly of Virginia, 1799; ceded to the Federal Government, 1789; first boundary stone of the Federal district laid 15 April, 1791; capitulated to the British 28 August, 1814; retroced-

HUERTA RECEIVES CARGO OF ARMS

OTHER SHIPS ARE DUE.

Secretary Garrison Favored Halting Ship, But Secretary Bryan Said Such Step Would Mean War.

Washington, May 9.—Rear Admiral Badger has advised the Navy Department that he was reliably informed the Hamburg-American liner Kronprinzessen Cecelie had landed arms and ammunition at Puerto Mexico, and that they were now on their way to Mexico City, consigned to General Huerta.

The arms and ammunition, it is said, were taken out on the same train that brought in the American refugees from the Mexican capital.

Admiral Badger also reported that a second steamer, name not given is on the way to Puerto Mexico with a cargo of munitions of war for the Huerta government.

Puerto Mexico is at the eastern terminus of the Tehauntepec Railroad, and is the only eastern Mexican port in direct railroad communication with Mexico City since the American occupation of Vera Cruz

The government is today also investigating a report that a large consignment of arms and ammunition, purchased from a Japanese firm, was landed Thursday at Salina Cruz, Mexico, and rushed to the Mexican capital. This consignment was said to be the final shipment of the arms and ammunition contracted for by Huerta last December. It includes rapid-fire guns with ammunition, and several pieces of siege artillery, according reports.

On Monday afternoon Secretary Bryan was notified by the American consul at Hamburg, Germany, that the Kronprinzessin Cecelie had started for Mexico with a cargo of arms and ammunition for Huerta. Another mesage followed the same afternoon stating that a second merchantman was loading with a similar cargo for a Mexican port.

The mediators are reported to have notified Huerta that the arrival of the arms and ammunition would be in violation of the terms under which they offered to use their good offices, and that they will be compelled to withdraw if he accepts the cargo.

There is no American war vessel at Puerto Mexico, and none has been ordered to that point.

Mr. Bryan opposed the suggestion of Secretary Garrison that the cargo should be stopped at all hazards, because the ammunition and guns probably would add to the American death list in the event that troops go to Mexico City.

So far as could be ascertained Mr. Bryan took the position that a blockade of Puerto Mexico or a seizure of the custom house might cause Huerta to withdraw from the mediation conference. The first stipulation to the mediation program was that the military forces of the two nations should be held "in statu quo"

When Secretary Garrison pointed out that Huerta had violated his agreement by ordering the cargo, Mr. Bryan insisted that this government could afford to allow his act to go unnoticed rather than put more forces in Mexico.

Washington, May 9.—Munitions of war aboard the steamer Cecile which arrived at Puerto Mexico yesterday will not be delivered to Huerta.

Washington, May 9.—Secretary Daniels announced last night that a full investigation had resulted in complete refutation of charges that difficulties between Lieutenant Commander Charles P. Huff and J. P. Keisecker, an employe of the Newport News Ship Building and Dry Dock Company, were connected with the official relations between Commander Huff and the shipyard.

SICILY SUFFERS FROM EARTHQUAKE

TOWNS ARE WRECKED.

Thousands of Panic-Stricken People Flee Towards Fields and Sea—The Priests Lead Refugees.

Acireale, Sicily, May 9.—At least 100 persons were killed and as many more injured as a result of the terrific earthquake which shook a score of towns and villages in this section last night.

Reports of dead and injured poured in upon the authorities today, and every effort is being made to care for the refugees.

The village of Bougiardo alone reports ten dead and twenty injured.

Two towns, with a population of 1,000 or more, were destroyed Hundreds of houses in other towns were wrecked.

The first earthquake was felt at 6 o'clock last evening. It continued several minutes, and was followed by a second and more severe shock an hour later. It was the second shock that sent houses tumbling from their foundations, buried victims in the ruins, and jarred the entire district in the vicinty of Mount Etna.

In every village at the base of th famous volcano the streets were soon jammed with men. women and children, rushing for the open country. Women ran screaming from the tottering walls of houses with their children clinging to their skirts and crying piteously.

The population poured into the open country with only such possessions as they could gather together as they ran from their homes, all those who escaped death spent the night in th open fields.

Acireale, a seaport town, is we built on a height at the base of Mt Etna, and every road leading to the city today is choked with sobbing, praying refugees fleeing from the homes.

Linera, with a population of 952 and Venerina, a town of 2,183, were destroyed. Hundreds of houses were wrecked in the villages of Zerbati. Pennisi, Belpasso, Maria, Vergine. Mangane, and Zafferanoa.

Mount Etna, which showed signs of an eruption about two weeks ago was still active today.

The population of hundreds of villages at the base of the volcano has deserted the town today and fled to the open country, fearing a disastrous eruption of the volcano as well as further earthquakes.

Before every wayside shrine priests gathered today with hundreds of refugees who petitioned the intervention of the Virgin Mary in the calamity falling upon them.

The first report of the authorities here estimated the dead at thirty and the injured at 120, though it was then admitted that the toll probably would be increased. Within a short time reports were received which increased the death list to 10 0and swelled the reports of the injured to greater figures.

BALL-PLAYING IN STREETS.

Juvenile Diversion Brings Forth Complaints From All Sections.

The baseball season is, as usual, bringing its annoyances to people in all quarters in Alexandria. It seems that youngsters have ignored every other source of amusement and become baseball enthusiasts, throwing and knocking balls in the public streets all day.

People residing in the vicinity of Duke and Lee streets have made complaint and requested the Gazette to call attention to the fact that in some cases it is literally necessary to barricade the houses in order to keep windows from being smashed by the players.

The police generally stop the pastime when they come along, but it i like driving a swarm of flies from a molasses barrel, as the youngsters reassmble as soon as the officers disappear.

There seems to be but one resource —and that is to procure the names of the principal offenders and turn them over to the police.

The squares upon which modern improvements have been placed in recent years seems o be chosen for throwing and knocking balls. It will be remembered that a young woman was seriously injured by being struck in the face by a ball recently.

Time of Death of Suicide Involved In Litigation Over $10,000 Policy.

Richmond, Va, May 9.—In the Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday a writ of erro rand supersedeas in the case of Dillard against the Security Life Insurance Company of America. The husband of the deceased was insured in the company for $10,000, and there was some delay alleged in the payment of the premiums from time to time. However, these were all met and the payments accepted by the company. On the night of November 20, 1912, the insured, who was a traveling man, ended his life in a hotel in Greensboro, N. C. The company raised the question as to what time the man's death occurred. The policy provided that it should expire on the 20th day of the quarter for which payment was made. The contention is that the plaintiff did not die till after midnight, or on the morning of November 21st. The case comes from the Circuit Court of Lynchburg, where a verdict was rendered in favor of the widow for the sum of $10,000. the face of the policy.

J. A. Mallory, Convicted of Embezzling Lodge Funds, Will be Released.

Richmond, May 9.—J. A. Mallory, of South Richmond, who was convicted as secretary of Jefferson Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, of embezzlement of the funds of the lodge, was granted a conditional pardon yesterday by Governor Stuart, and will become a free man today. He has served six months of the original two years' sentence imposed upon him in the Hustings Court of Richmond. His pardon was granted on the petition of officers of the lodge and the recommendation of Judge D. C. Richardson and Commonwealth's Attorney Folkes.

Mallory served as secretary of Jefferson Council for twenty years. A short while ago he happened upon hard times in his business and "borrowed" $250 from the funds of the lodge to apply to his private affairs. He had not been able to replace it when the deficit was discovered. It was at first agreed to allow him time to make up the shortage, but afterwards the lodge began criminal proceedings against him.

Burglar Slain in Bedford.

Thaxton, Va., May 9.—Suspicious that an attempt would be made Thursday night to rob their store, J. D. Morgan, a merchant, of this place, and his son, J. L. Morgan, secreted themselves in an outbuilding nearby and watched a man enter their establishment about 11 o'clock.

When the intruder became alarmed and attempted to leave the store by window Mr. Morgan and his son opened fire.

Both shots took effect in the man's breast and he died in a few minutes without making any statement. Hi identity was not established.

The adoption of a resolution indorsing the policy of the President in handing the Mexican situation, was one of the last official actions of the twenty-fourth annual United Confederate Veterans' reunion, which was concluded last night at Jacksonville, Fla. Thousands of enthusiastic citizens and visitors today loudly cheered survivors of the Confederate army, who participated in their twenty-fourth annual parade. Veterans, maids, and sponsors, in nearly 2,000 automobiles, took part in the parade. All of the departmental officers of the three divisions were on horseback, as well as a detachment of Forrest cavalry.

Oscar Fried, of Yonkers, N. Y., whose arms were burned off by an overhead electric feed wire of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, received $75,000 damages by a verdict rendered in the Supreme Court at White Plains yesterday. He sued for $150,000.

EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE.

Planning an Aggressive Campaign Against Illiteracy.

Richmond, Va., May 9.—Prominent school people and citizens interested in the promotion of education in Virginia will hold a conference in Richmond during the latter part of May for the discussion of educational questions in general and to formulate plans for an aggressive campaign against illiteracy. The meeting will possibly be held in the hall of the house of delegates.

Governor Stuart and R. C. Stearnes, superintendent of public instruction, have been requested to make the formal call for the convention and to designate the delegates who are to come from every section of the State and will represent every educational interest in Virginia.

The idea of the conference was first suggested at a meeting of the executive committee of the Co-operative Educational Association of Virginia, held a few days ago.

SEEK TO ELIMINATE TREHY.

Norfolk, Va., May 9.—Efforts to reorganize the Democratic party in Norfolk are being made with James V. Trehy on the outside.

The City Democratic Executive Committee, the legality of which is questioned by Democrats, will be reorganized if a quorum can be gotten together. The laws of the party in Virginia say the executive committee must be nominated in the same primary in which candidates for the legislature are selected.

As there has been no legislative primary in this city in several years, some old-line Democrats claim the present committee is the lawful mouthpiece of the party in this city until its successor has been elected.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE.

Governor Plans to Leave for Oklahoma City For Week's Stay.

Richmond, Va., May 9.—Governor Henry C. Stuart will leave Richmond late tonight for Oklahoma City, Okla., to attend the sessions of the general conference of the Methodist Church in that city, to which he is a regularly accredited delegate. The general conference has been in session during this week will in all probability continue uninterrupted for at least two weeks longer. The Governor expects to attend the sessions of the conference for only four or five days, remaining away from Richmond not more than a week.

The Governor is a delegate to the General Conference from the Holston Conference, which includes Southwest Virginia. He takes an active interest in the work of the Methodist Church in his conference, and attends the Park Place Methodist Church in Richmond.

Militia Camp at Fredericksburg.

Richmond, Va., May 9.—Fredericksburg was selected yesterday as the site for the camp of instruction of the officers of the Virginia militia. Adjutant-General Sale says the instructions will last for one week, beginning June 1. About 150 officers of the militia will attend. The medical department will go to Fort Myer, Va., and the artillerymen to Banyanna, Pa., for instruction.

FIVE MEN SUCCEED BAER.

Morgan & Co and of the Drexel firm of bankers of Philadelphia, was yesterday elected president of the Reading Company, the holding corporation for the Philadelphia and Reading Railway and Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company.

At the same time Mr. Stotesbury was elected chairman of the board of directors of the railway company and also of the coal and iron company.

Professor Budlong's case of eczema was known to almost every hospital and physician of reputation throughout the state of Connecticut. D. D. Prescription has been of incalculable value to me. I was covered with eczema from head to foot when I began using your remedies. I could get no relief, although I tried a thousand means. I applied but two bottles of the Prescription; a cure was effected in a very short time, in less than one month."—Prof. C. J. Budlong, South Lyme, Conn.

Ask any druggist today for D. D. D. Prescription. He'll tell you it allays the itch instantly—and soon there are signs of cure.

ANOTHER BEQUEST FROM THE DAMES.

The unveiling of the tablet by the Colonial Dames of Virginia in the northwestern wing of Alexandria's City Hall late yesterday afternoon was an interesting and impressive event, and one long to be remembered by the many who gathered at the spot. All who participated in the exercises acted well their parts, and the unexpected appearance of Hon. William Jennings Bryan, in whose veins Virginia blood flows, imparted additional enthusiasm to the occasion.

This is the second gift to Alexandria by the Colonial Dames in less than two years, they having a short time ago placed a great desideratum at the intersection of Cameron and Royal streets in the shape of a public fountain, which has proven a joy to man and beast, as well as birds which chirp and quench their thirst with pure aqua Cameroni.

The tablet unveiled yesterday, while not affording physical nourishment, is a gift in season. It places in stone the more interesting notes in the history of our old city, especially parts it played in Colonial days when a great nation was brought to the birth.

Men have been moving from the east to the west since the attempt to build the tower of Babel. A few thousand years hence and tourists may be sitting amid the ruins of the Capitol of the United States and, as Macaulay suggests, the New Zealander will be perched upon a broken span of London Bridge gazing at the ruins of St. Paul.

While the Pacific slope may at that time be what the Atlantic now is, explorers in old Bellehaven will be likely to find the tablet placed in position yesterday which will tell them of Alexandria and embalm its memory in ages to come.

Tablets are as old as man. One was recently found in the foundation of the Temple at Jerusalem. It had been placed in one side of the structure upon which the Saviour of Mankind was gazing when he told His hearers the time was coming when literally there would not be left one stone upon another. The legend was in Greek, which shows, according to the deductions of scholars, that that tongue was more generally known in Jerusalem at that time than any other.

In what is now known as Tunis (ancient Carthage) a tablet was found which is probably one of the most interesting in the world. Substantially it announces that the ancestors of the Carthaginians were the remnants of those who escaped when the Israelites entered the Promised Land and put the inhabitants to the sword.

Mayor Fisher, in receiving this testimonial from the Colonial Dames, expressed about all that could have been uttered in appreciation of the gift. The rank and file of the city heartily affirm all he said, and they feel a conscious pride in the addition made to Alexandria's City Hall by this appropriate record which all who run may read.

HOT TIME IN THE SUBURBS TODAY.

Across the river today Congress is in session, and lots of hot air is blowing in both branches.

The California Shriners, three hundred strong, and a band of a hundred pieces, headed by the largest drum-major in the world, paraded Pennsylvania avenue and serenaded Admiral Dewey.

The War Department was busy guessing.

A regiment of magnificently mounted cavalry raised storms of applause as they rode up New York Avenue.

The suffragettes stormed the capital and the "red, red rose" vied with the yellow. The Colonial Dames are also in session.

Altogether things were lively in our suburbs today.

The market square is the historic center of the town. In it the troops of Braddock were drilled, 1755, and the news of the defeat of Fort Duquesne was announced to the country July 16, 1755.

The Carlyle House in Fairfax street was the headquarters of Gen. Braddock during the French-Indian war and was the scene of the council of royal governors, Dinwiddie of Virginia, Shirley, of Masachusetts DeLancy, of New York, Morris, of Pennsylvania, and Sharp of Maryland, at which first suggestion was made by British officials, in council, of taking the American colonies. On this occasion Washington received his appointment as aid to Gen. Braddock.

"Here was held 1785, a conference between the governors of Virginia and Maryland, which resulted in a convention of delegates from all the states at Philadelphia, 1787. This convention framed the constitution of the United States.

"In the market square stood the old Farfax county courthouse, where the freeholders of the town and county assembled July 18, 1774. At this meeting George Washington presided and George Mason drew up the celebrated Fairfax county resolution protesting against British tyranny.

"The county courthouse was the point of beginning of the survey of the Federal district, 1791. Here General Washington polled his last vote, 1799, and his will was probated 20 January, 1800.

"At the old city tavern, corner of Royal and Cameron streets, Washington had his headquarters as Colonel of Virginia militia when drilling his troops, 1754.

The first celebration of the adoption of the Federal Constitution was held at this tavern 27 June, 1788, and from the doorway, 16 April, 1799, Gen. Washington, on his way to his first inauguration, responded to the farewell address made by Gen. Denis Ramsay, mayor, on behalf of the citizens of Alexandria.

"This tablet is erected by the Colonial Dames of America in the state of Virginia, May 8, 1914."

The tablet is of marble and was made by William Chauncey Sons.

A captive military balloon was struck by lightning and destroyed today at Zossen, 22 miles south of Berlin. The military telegraph battalion was using the balloon in wireless experiments. There were no casualties.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The meeting of the A. H. S. Literary Society, which was to be held last Saturday night, May 2, was postponed on short notice until tonight, the work on the plays not giving the participants in the program enough time to work up their material. The meeting will be held tonight in the school building at 7:30 sharp. All members are requested to be present. The public is also cordially invited to attend the meeting. The subject for tonight's debate is "Resolved, That the United States should declare war against Mexico." The affirmative side will be upheld by Miss Carol Leadbeater and Otis Sunderlin, and the negative by Tupper Barrett and Gus Pohl. Declamations are to be rendered by Miss Henderson, Miss Glasgow, and Frank Johnston. The question of selecting method of choosing the debater who is to receive one of the medal presented to the Society will be taken up and discussed at the meeting.

Called Meeting Wednesday.

A called meeting of the Society wa sheld in Mr. Prettyman's room Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of definitely settling a method of awarding the declaimer's and debater's medals. After much argument no satisfactory result was obtained. The original motion to award the medal for debating by open ballot was laid on the table. It was decided to award the medal for the best declaimer by a declamation contest to be held Friday, the 29th of May, and which is to be open to all members of the Society free of charge. The contestants for the declamation medal are requested to file their names with the Secretary of the Society before next Monday.

Coming Field Meet.

A small preliminary meet in the track events will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 at Rosemont by the Alexandria High School. This meet is to be held in preparation for the big field meet to be held the 16th of this month at Fredericksburg. The events to be held at Rosemont Monday are the mile run, the half-mile run, the 440, 220, and 100 yard dash. At school Tuesday afternoon, the field events will be held, including the shot-up, broad jump, high jump, pole-vault, and others.

Girls' A. C. Meets.

The Girls' Athletic Association held a called meeting in Mr. Prettyman's room Thursday afternoon.

Receipts From Play.

About $100 was realized on "Everystudent" and "The Princess," which were given by the A. H. S. Players last Friday night at the Opera House. This will be part of the Alexandria High School contribution toward the hospital fund.

Two persons were killed, several were injured and considerable property was destroyed by storms which swept th Southern States during Thursday night. The deaths occurred in Mississippi. Great damage das done to crops in that State and in Louisiana. A heavy wind, rain and hail storm unroofed several warehouses in Savannah. The Seaboard Air Line terminals in that city suffered $50,000 damage. Hail destroyed cotton and corn in South Carolina and in Eastern Tennessee did much damage to crops.

The Japanese goverment yesterday informed the State Department that it had appropriated $363,362 for the participation by Japanese warships in the international naval review to be held at Hampton Roads early in 1915, and in the trip through the Panama Canal to the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town. says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

BIG AGRICULTURAL LAND OPENING

TWELVE HUNDRED AND FIFTY TRACTS of five and ten acres each to be granted in prospective settlers in throwing open Twenty Thousand Acres of Rich, Southern Georgia Land, which is admirably adapted to the growing of celery, sweet and Irish potatoes, cantaloupes, water melons, corn, oats, cotton, hay—in fact all staple crops grown in this fertile section, as well as a large variety of semi-tropical fruits, and the famous immensely profitable paper-shell pecans.

Providing you are eligible under the classifications prescribed by us, you are now offered an excellent opportunity to break away from the drudgery and toil of a small wage, or working for the benefit of landlords, and go back to the land of plenty, to which, if granted, you will hold a warranty deed and abstract.

The best security on earth is the earth itself and land is the basis of all wealth. Owners of productive lands are benefitting by the increasing high cost of living, while others are suffering from it.

An Opportunity to Secure Rich Productive Land Without Capital

You will not be required to leave your present surroundings now. All we ask of those to whom we grant tracks is that they plant or, arrange a crop of one of the above-mentioned products within three years, after which we will have it operated (harvested and replanted) for grantees, in consideration of 25 per cent. of the net profits derived from the ale of the crops, thereby allowing the grantee to pursue his or her present occupation until such time as they determine just what the yield of their acres amounts to. Consider what this may mean as a source of income, when statistics show that the yield of one acre of celery amounted to $1,268.45, and that one acre of well-cared-for paper-shell pecans, in full bearing, should net its owner as high as $500.00 per year. We are of the opinion that after it is proven by actual results obtained in operating the land that they will need no further arguing, and waste no time in locating on this land of plenty. We also require grantees to occupy the land within ten years, or sell it to some one who will occupy it, otherwise it reverts back to the grantor.

The land included in this opening is located directly on and adjoining the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, about twenty-five miles west of Brunswick, a thriving city of fifteen thousand, having direct steamship service to New York and Boston, and excellent railroad transportation facilities to all points. The average temperature for six months of the year, from April to October, is 77 degrees; the climate is most healthful, delightful, and invigorating, and there is an ample rainfall of 51 inches per year.

Our Aim is For Mutually Beneficial Results.

As we are extremely desirous of having settlers locate on this property, and assist in its development, and thereby greatly increase the value of surrounding and intervening property, which we will hold and to increase the traffic along the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, and thus facilitate the service, we feel warranted in granting these tracts to those who register with us. We also have in mind business and residence plots which we will offer for sale after the opening, but which will not be included in it. We have "money-making afterward" considerations in this liberal-minded opening similar to those of the Northern Pacific and other railroads when they granted their lands, and we expect to benefit thereby, as well as the ones who will receive the tracts.

We have also planned to develop what is designed to be the best equipped, most up-to-date, scientific, commercial farm and orchard in existence. It will consist of six thousand acres and will be included in this opening. All who register and receive tracts will get the benefit of the experiments and scientific methods in vogue thereon. While we are arranging to prevent over-registration, we will avoid many disappointments, such as occurred in other land openings conducted by the United States Government and railroads, by granting those who register in excess of the number of tracts to be granted, an interest in this commercial farm and orchard enterprise, in the hope that they may later locate in one of our town sites.

Examination of the land will be cheerfully permitted, and the opening will be held at Browntown, Wayne county, Georgia, one of the stations of the A. B. & A. Railroad, which is located on this property, and will occur as soon after the closing of registrations as arrangements can be made.

The presence of those registered will not be necessary at Browntown on the opening day, unless they wish to attend, for there will be no favoritism shown any one. It will be conducted by a committee selected for the purpose, and those registered will be notified of what they have been granted, as soon as possible.

With an ever-increasing population of this country there is no corresponding increase in the area of land, and naturally as the population increases and seeks the land in pursuit of health, happiness and independence, it will continue to be harder to secure.

The prosperous and contented class in Europe today are the descendants of those who secured land there when it was plentiful, while the descendants of those who obtained no land are now the peasants and slaves. You must realize that this may be your last chance to secure land in this country without a large outlay of capital, so it should not be necessary to urge you to act at once by forwarding us the application for registration attached to this announcement.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Word was passed along the line of House members yesterday that any efforts to evade a vote on the Hobson national prohibition resolution at the present session will be of no avail. The edict has gone forth from Majority Leader Underwood that the dominant party in Congress will refuse to assume the responsibility of further delay, now that the judiciary committee has passed the issue directly up to the House.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and his bride arrived yesterday at Cornish, N. H., to spend their honeymoon at Harlakenden, the summer White House. Mr. and Mrs. McAdoo came by train as far as West Deerfield, Mass., where they were met by an automobile. Part of the journey along the banks of the Connecticut River to Cornish was made with the bride on the front seat, giving the chauffeur road directions, and with Mr. McAdoo sitting alone behind.

A new and wonderful system, which, it is claimed, will revolutionize high speed traction throughout the world, was demonstrated in London Thursday before the mechanical experts of several of the most important British railways. This new system, which is the invention and discovery of a French scientist, Emile Bacheket, as demonstrated by a model of the largest size, did all that was claimed for it. A speed of 300 miles an hour was attained. The train travels through space without visible means of support either above or below. At a wizard touch it is away like a flash, devouring distance at the terrific speed of 5 miles a minute, defying all laws of gravity.

Medical inspection of school children, now obtaining in several cities of South Carolina and proposed in a law to apply to the entire state, was vigorously denounced by Governor Cole L. Blease, in a speech yesterday in his campaign for the United States Snate at Greenville, S. C. He declared that unscrupulous physicians would make use of the opportunity to make reports reflecting on the character of the daughters of their political enemies. Governor Blease asserted that if any physician should attempt against his will to examine privately a daughter of his, if he had one, he would kill him. He told his audience of 1,500 cotton mill workers that if they killed a physician who attempted against their will to examine their daughters he would pardon them as fast as electricity could carry the pardon.

Colonel George W. Goethals, governor of the Panama Canal Zone, said yesterday in Panama that he would put torpedoboats through the canal at any time Secretary of the Navy Daniels desired him to do so. He said also that he would ask Secretary of War Garrison's approval to send ships through the canal on or about May 15, as he anticipates having a 30-foot channel cut through the slide at Cucaracha by then. The barge line which is to aid the railway in transporting freight across the isthmus will be in operation next Monday. The condition of the Cucaracha slide is much improved. The slide is now moving much slower than it is being removed by the dredges.

Fire that destroyed the general office building of the Birmingham Railway, Light and Power Company, in the business district of Birmingham, Ala., cost two lives and possibly more. Moody Childers and Henry H. Keyser were killed when they jumped from the top floor of the four-story building. The property loss is estimated at $175,000.

Sheriff Bonner Hill and a party of deputies hurriedly left Charleston, W. Va., late yesterday for Cannelton, where trouble between working and striking miners was reported. The Cannelton miners obeyed the command of the United Mine Workers' officers to return to work while negotiations with the operators were continued, but the men at Boomer refused. About 10,000 men are involved. Yesterday afternoon the Boomer men, led by a foreigner carrying a red flag, set out for Cannelton to extend the strike.

German court circles, the London Express Berlin correspondent says, are deeply interested in announcement that Prince William of Hohenzollern, head of the nonreigning line, is leaving soon for England to bring home his daughter, who is the wife of King Manuel. It is stated that she will return to her father's castle for a long stay. The reason for her return to Germany without her husband is not given.

HUERTA ENVOYS KILLED.

Zapata Cuts Ears From Ours, and he Will do Same to Dictator.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, May 9.—Zapata has rejected Huerta's overtures for an alliance against the Americans in characteristically barbarous fashion. Directly after the occupation of Vera Cruz, Huerta sent Hernando Farias, Alberto Gonzales, and Eduardo Alfredo Arizmendi as emissaries to Zapata, who was then at Cuautla, 15 miles west of Cuernavaca.

As an evidence of good faith, and with a desire to placate Zapata, Huerta released from prison "Cockeyed" Morales, one of Zapata's bandit allies in the state of Puebla, providing him with clothes and money in addition to pardoning him. Morales went to Cuautla with Farias, Gonzales, and Arizmendi

Zapata killed Farias and Arizmendi out of hand, hanging them and riddling their bodies with bullets as they strangled He cut off the ears of Gonzales and turned him loose, with an injunction to return to Huerta, and tell the dictator that Zapata would treat him similarly when he caught him.

The Mayflower reached Hampton Roads early today and robably will join the Montana, which last night was steaming northward from Hatteras.

The two vessels will proceed to New York, anchoring Sunday afternoon off the Batter, where the bodies of the sailors and marines will be landed immediately. They will be placed on caissons and parked on the south side of the plaza in the Battery, to be guarded by a detachment from the Montana.

MRS. TOPFER AWARDED $4,000.

Her Daughter, Who Attempted Suicide, in Critical Condition.

Cambridge, Md., May 9.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Annie R. Topfer against Avery Todd Malone brought in a verdict yesterday of $4,000 damages for the alleged seduction of her daughter, Miss Hazel Topfer.

The suit was brought by Mrs. Topfer for her daughter, who was not of age. The girl apparently opposed the action of her mother. When the case was called Thursday the girl attempted to commit suicide in court rather than testify. She previously had consented to go from the jurisdiction of the court.

Mrs. Topfer, who was removed t Cambridge Hospital Thursday after her attempt to end her life by swallowing bichloride of mercury tablets, is still in a critical condition.

Alonzo L. Miles and E. Stanley Toadvine, attorneys for Malone, will appeal the case on the ground that Mrs. Topfer is not the natural guardian of her daughter, since her husband is living. They will claim that the latter has the right to bring such a suit but the mother has not. Mrs. Topfer and her husband are divorced.

BOY LOST IN MOUNTAIN.

Twelve-Year-Old Lad Disappeared Monday—Foul Play Feared.

Frederick, Md., May 8.—Searching parties are scouring the Catoctin Mountains near Sabillasville and Highfield for Martin Tressler, the 13-year-old son of Adam Tressler, who disappeared from home Monday morning. The boy was sent to the home of a neighbor a mile away to borrow a saw. After returning it he told his parents he was going for a walk, and has not been seen since. Owing to his familiarity with the mountain it is not thought that he lost his way. It is feared that he has met with foul play.
